

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

H. D., of Wis.—There is no work on millwrighting published of the character you mention; one is much wanted.

F. S., of Miss.—You are right respecting the value of water power. What other would you have than a second for measuring velocity.

H. H., of Me.—A cannon having a spindle running longitudinally through its bore, and the ball made with a hole to fit the spindle, are not new devices.

G. L., of N. Y.—The foreign books you mention we have not; we do not bring to mind any patent with which yours would interfere.

A. J. B., of Mich.—Address Webber & Hartshorn, of Gardner, Me., for lathes for spokes, &c.

A. W. A., of Mich.—Double axles, and other plans for allowing car wheels to turn independently when passing curves, have long been known.

T. McD., of Ct.—Your improvement in locomotives appears to be novel. If experiment had settled the fact that it would accomplish all that you suppose, perhaps we should comply with your request to make engravings at our own cost.

H. W. W., of Mass.—We think your invention possesses one patentable feature, viz., the method of regulating the pressure of the spring.

J. W. P., of Mich.—Yours is a very old device for feeding boilers. A Mr. Sergeant, of Cincinnati, has a patent for a very simple apparatus on this principle, which is entirely self-acting, and regulates the level.

J. M. N., of Vt.—Your plan of using borax in welding is very useful; it is, however, well known and extensively practiced.

J. C. S., of Ohio—It is true all the great capes on our globe run out to the south, but this is easily explained by looking on a globe: all the land on our planet, excepting Australia, hugs the north and the water the south, therefore the points of the land must run out to the south into the water.

J. M. W., of Pa.—We have read your article on a universal system of weights and measures, and think highly of it, but it would not look well to use turned types for the new figures.

R. M. C., of Texas—Mr. S.'s method of solving the question, is the best way to settle it. We await such a conclusion.

J. M., of Phila.—Yours will appear next week.

J. C., of Tenn.—We have your article on the flight of birds, and may find room for its publication in a few weeks.

W. C. J., of N. C.—We do not know where you can find a spark arrester for the purpose stated by you.

F. M. H., of Ill.—In the year 1684, Nathan Heckford took a patent in England for making sails to go the horizontal way for wind mills, and for operating pumps for draining purposes.

J. L. D., of N. Y.—Yours next week.

J. H. B., of Mass.—Get Bourne's catechism on the steam engine, and Hodge on the steam engine. You must learn considerably by practice; this you will soon do.

M. D. L., of N. Y.—If your house is to be of brick, you must get registers set in the walls; if of wood, you must make the windows ventilators.

J. S., of Ky.—In requesting the publication of your long communication you ask too much.

R. T., of New York.—The centrifugal force theory of obtaining power from nothing never was advocated by the inventor of the pump.

B. J. B., of L. I.—We have been told there is plenty of fresh water on Long Island to supply two cities twice as large as Brooklyn.

D. D., of N. Y.—The plane of a wheel is understood to mean the plane of revolution, and to extend ad infinitum.

W. T., of N. Y.—We are not acquainted with any work describing the process of making malleable iron castings.

J. S., of C. W.—We have never heard of a plan like yours for laying telegraph wires, but if anything were to go wrong with a wire, the rail would have to be lifted.

N. C., of Ohio—We have not received the printed description of the engine referred to.

G. R. D., of Ky.—The receipt for the whitewash is to slack your lime in hot water and add two pounds of the sulphate of zinc and salt to the bushel of lime.

T. M. P., of Md.—The French Academy of Sciences still offers the reward. You can send your medicine by express to Paris.

H. M. P., of Mass.—Yours will receive attention.

IMPORTANT TO INVENTORS.

THE UNDERSIGNED having had ten years' practical experience in soliciting PATENTS in this and foreign countries, beg to give notice that they continue to offer their services to all who may desire to secure Patents at home or abroad.

Over three thousand Letters Patent have been issued whose papers were prepared at this Office, and on an average fifteen or twenty of all the Patents issued each week are on cases which are prepared at our Agency.

Able corps of Engineers, Examiners, Draftsmen and Specification writers are in constant employment, which renders us able to prepare applications on the shortest notice, while the experience of a long practice, and facilities which few others possess, enable us to give the most correct and sensible advice in regard to the patentability of inventions placed before us for examination.

Private consultations respecting the patentability of inventions are held free of charge, with inventors, at our office, from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M. Parties residing at a distance are informed that it is generally unnecessary for them to incur the expense of attending in person, as all the steps necessary to secure a patent can be arranged by letter. A rough sketch and description of the improvement should be first forwarded, which we will examine and give an opinion as to patentability, without charge. Models and fees can be sent with safety from any part of the country by express.

In addition to the advantages which the long experience and great success of our firm in obtaining patents present to inventors, they are informed that all inventions patented through our establishment, are noticed at the proper time, in the Scientific American. This paper is read by not less than 100,000 persons every week, and enjoys a very wide spread and substantial influence.

Most of the patents obtained by Americans in foreign countries are secured through us; while it is well known that a very large proportion of all the patents applied for in the U. S., go through our agency.
