

PATENTS

The First Inquiry that presents itself to one who has made any improvement or discovery is: "Can I obtain a Patent?" A positive answer can only be had by presenting a complete application for a Patent to the Commissioner of Patents.

Messrs. MUNN & CO., in connection with the publication of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, have been actively engaged in the business of obtaining patents for over twenty years—nearly a quarter of a century.

Those who have made inventions and desire to consult with us, are cordially invited to do so. We shall be happy to see them in person, at our office, or to advise them by letter.

All business committed to our care, and all consultations, are kept by us secret and strictly confidential. Address MUNN & CO., 37 Park Row, New York.

Preliminary Examination.—In order to obtain a Preliminary Examination, make out a written description of the invention in your own words, and a rough pencil or pen-and-ink sketch.

In Order to Apply for a Patent, the law requires that a model shall be furnished, not over a foot in any dimensions, smaller, if possible.

The model should be neatly made of any suitable materials, strongly fastened, without glue, and neatly painted. The name of the inventor should be engraved or painted upon it.

When the invention consists of a medicine or compound, or a new article of manufacture, or a new composition, samples of the article must be furnished, neatly put up.

Reissues.—A reissue is granted to the original patentee, his heirs, or his assigns, in case of an error, when by reason of an insufficient or defective specification the original patent is invalid.

A patentee may, at his option, have in his reissue a separate patent for each distinct part of the invention comprehended in his original application.

Interferences.—When each of two or more persons claims to be the first inventor of the same thing, an "interference" is declared between them, and a trial is had before the Commissioner.

Caveats.—A caveat gives a limited but immediate protection, and is particularly useful where the invention is not fully completed, or the model is not ready.

Quick Applications.—When, from any reason, parties are desirous of applying for Patents or Caveats, in GREAT HASTE, without a moment's loss of time, they have only to write or telegraph us specially to that effect.

Foreign Patents.—American inventors should bear in mind that, in general, an invention that is valuable to the patentee in this country is worth equally as much in England and some other foreign countries.

For Instructions concerning Foreign Patents, Reissues, Interferences, Hints on Selling Patents, Rules and Proceedings at the Patent Office, the Patent Laws, etc., see our Instruction Book. Sent free by mail on application.

Published Twenty-Two Years.

This paper differs materially from other publications being an illustrated weekly paper containing 16 large pages, devoted to the promulgation of information relating to the various Mechanical and Chemical Arts, Photography, Manufactures, Agriculture, Patents, Inventions, Engineering, Mill Work, etc.

Every number contains several beautiful engravings of new machines. All the most valuable discoveries are delineated and described in its issues, so that, as respects inventions, it may be justly regarded as an Illustrated Repertory, where the inventor may learn what has been done before him in the same field which he is exploring, and where he may bring to the world a knowledge of his own achievements.

The contributors to the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN are among the most eminent scientific practical men of the times. Mechanics, Inventors, Engineers, Chemists, Manufacturers, Agriculturists, and people in every walk of life, will find the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN to be of great value in their respective callings. Its counsels and suggestions will save them hundreds of dollars annually, besides affording them a continual source of knowledge.

An official list of all Patents granted, together with the claims thereof, is published weekly. The form of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN is adapted for binding and preservation; and the yearly numbers make two splendid volumes of nearly one thousand quarto pages.

Published Weekly, $3 a year, $1.50 half-year, 10 copies for 1 year, $25. Specimen copies sent gratis. Address MUNN & CO., No. 37 Park Row, New York.
