

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

"S. J. W. of Ala."—It will be two weeks before we can give you answer.

"L. V. P. of N. Y."—Your communication is too long for us to read. You will see how much and arduous the labor is to examine attentively such matter. Plainness and brevity is requested in every case.

"J. A. A. of Mass."—Metals have been deposited from the ores more than four years ago.

"A. T. of Va."—It is all very true that caloric acid will answer the same purpose as steam, but it will not be so cheap. That is our candid opinion.

"D. B. of Locust Grove, Ohio."—Your letter, accompanied with twenty five dollars, came safely to hand. We shall receive some copies of the Engineer's and Machinist's Assistant by next English steamer, and will forward one by Express. The money received is just sufficient to pay for the work.

"A. W. B. of R. I."—We cannot furnish you with the first numbers of volume 2, unless you order the set complete.

"A. W. D. of Manchester, N. H."—We do not know the names of the patentees, but shall probably publish all the particulars very soon.

"J. W. K. of Va."—The English Registration Act allows only a superficial space of 24 by 15 inches for drawings and specification of every invention complex or simple. A foolish act indeed, but 'tis like the act nullifying a patent if published before granted. A wise man is uncle John.

"W. P. S. of Ohio."—We are not able to tell when Hult's application may be examined. It will not, in all probability, for two months yet. It will appear in our weekly list of patents.

"G. S. of Conn."—The overshot wheel 10 feet in diameter with 7 feet buckets, will be all of one-third more effective power than a breast wheel 12½ feet in diameter with 6 feet buckets. The exact difference we have not calculated, but if you have Scott, or Barlow, at hand, you might in a leisure hour make out the difference yourself.

"W. S. of Vt."—You will by this time have received our letter. We answered you and directed you to write to the Fulton Iron Foundry, South Boston, Mass.

"D. P. & J. M. of Mass."—We do not see how the waste of the collars can be applied for the rolls by any chemical operation. We would advise you to try a few collars of the Gutta Percha. We do not know positively that they would answer, but we think they would, and there is no waste, even old stuff can be manufactured over again. Gutta Percha would do well for pickers, only the atmosphere of the factory is too hot.

"G. V. of R. I."—You have not given us any description of your Wind Mill, and you will see that we are not able to judge relative to your question. But governors have been used, and there are Mills with self-acting sails, and Bywater's patent embraces the rolling up of the sails, or reefing, while the mill is in motion.

"O. B. of Ohio."—We can furnish you with the second volume, as advertised. The first we cannot furnish. There is no such work published, as you describe, in this country.

"E. B. M. of N. H."—It is not convenient for us to procure those cannon primers for you. We have credited the amount you sent towards your subscription as ordered.

"R. S. M. of N. Y."—The gimp and fringe machine covers five or six cords at once, and can be made to cover any number. You will hear more about it if you call at this office.

"S. T. H. of Pa. and M. A. of Pa."—Your communications have just been received. Also "P. & M. of Mass." and "H. J. B. of N. C."

"S. D. P. of Mass."—Your engraving was sent to you by Adams and Co's. Express, on the 10th.

"W. B. & L. A. B. of N. Y."—We cannot with propriety comply with your requests.

"J. B. G. of Ala."—Remit to us a dollar and order a copy of the Patent Laws for all countries, if you wish to know how to proceed to secure your invention by patent.

"P. M. of Marietta, Ga."—Dr. Smith's subscription expired with the last No. of the "Sci. American."

To Cotton Manufacturers.

THE Subscriber will furnish Cotton Manufacturers with his improved Cotton Willow. The fact of its being introduced into most of the best mills in New England is the best proof of its excellence. It is extremely simple in its construction and will do more and BETTER work with a less expenditure of power than any other Willow; it prepares the cotton so much better than any other that there is much less power and repairs needed on the succeeding machinery. It is as safe from fire as a Card, and its form and action are such as to draw all the flyings and dirt from the journals; it will convey the cotton to any desirable distance short of 250 feet. It can be placed in the basement of a mill or other place nearly worthless for other manufacturing purposes, and will blow the cotton into the rooms above. All necessary information given for placing and operating the machine in any peculiar or difficult situation. EDMUND BACON,
Superintendent Quinebaug Manufacturing Co.
