If any and every man who does this, is a benefactor

To all correspondents who have asked for information, we have endeavored to give it to them in all candor. Many have written unto every case being good. Some could not get an answer because of the too great length of their letters, and some, we must say, we could not read, not owing to bad composition apparently, but to carelessness in the writers. Many of our correspondents may have been overlooked unintentionally. We endeavor to be careful in this respect, but when we have so many as 50 letters on an average per day, and some of them very long, As this number closes volume 5, we would it is impossible to prevent oversights.
